In 1953, Jim Irving, Chairman of the Prince Albert Rural School Unit, called a meeting to consider building a centralized school. A four classroom school was to be built to accommodate Grades 1 to 12 students from Briarlea East and West, Nisbet, Sturgeon Valley, Brant and Crystal Plains (Wild Rose).

Wild Rose Central School, 1954.

Construction started in 1953 and was completed in August 1954. (excerpt from Footprints of Our Pioneers)
